Dear Bill,

I am writing to ask two things of you, please:

When does the 30 days for appeal expire, and may I, please, for my records, have a copy of all the papers we filed?

Should they appeal, would you please let me know. I have been asked about the him in other connections and have avoided comment.

Roufa has been silent.

I suppose this means that the next book- which is about New Orleans, — will likewise be suppressed there.

Do you really think Bringuier and his associates lost the suit?

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
